

Press Kit for:
The Love, The Rhythm and
The Unstoppable Quest for Social Justice

SYNOPSIS

11-LINE SYNOPSIS.

This is the history-making performance featuring some of the best social justice musicians worldwide! You'll hear original songs about everything from peace to revolution, from songs of freedom denied in prison to blues songs about people standing up against the KKK, from songs of miscegenation to Hurricane Katrina, from songs about the love between activists to songs about love for those unjustly denied entry into the country. Favorites from Maine such as Rachel Griffin, Samuel James and Miss Nina Marie, Oliver Waterman, Cornell Welch, Sara 'Sarita' and more! From Washington is 'paulbrown', from Ireland is Colin Ryan, from Peru is Victoria Chicon and many more! And all this incredible music is done with psychedelic background special effects! This was organized by Volunteers of the A World Beyond Capitalism Conference, in collaboration with the Rescue Community and is 100% copyleft and non-copyrighted so we encourage people to duplicate it and circulate it! Non-corporate and non-government groups are encouraged to record this and sell it as a fundraiser. This is an entirely not-for-profit project trying to spread the word for peace and social justice around the world.
